

The news today said that Sinclair Broadcasting has decided to air "Stolen Honor" through its stations. Such one sided programming so close to the election is abusive to its use of power and prevlidge, and not in the best interest of democracy. It is not helpful for such prejudicial and partisan material used as a documentary broadcast. Licensing such stations needs to be highly questioned.